Our Money Problem

We live with a persistent misbelief that if we just had a little more, we would be happy forever.
The Surplus Mindset

Deciding we have enough for ourselves and enough to share. …

... This is the new money mindset we aim to grow into.
YOUR NEW MONEY MINDSET

Wanting More

More Than Enough
Basic Needs
All people have essential needs that deserve to be met.

All followers of Jesus should do “something useful with their own hands, that they may have something to share with those in need.” (Ephesians 4:28 NIV)

Getting More
YOUR NEW MONEY MINDSET

More Than Enough
Ecclesiastes 2:10-11

“I denied myself nothing my eyes desired; I refused my heart no pleasure. My heart took delight in all my labor, and this was the reward for all my toil. Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind; nothing was gained under the sun.” (NIV)
Day-to-day happiness in America doesn’t rise once people have a household income of more than $75,000 per year.

Proverbs 30:8-9

“Give me neither poverty nor riches, but give me only my daily bread. Otherwise, I may have too much and disown you and say, ‘Who is the Lord?’ Or I may become poor and steal, and so dishonor the name of my God.” (NIV).
Luke 12:15

“Take care! Protect yourself against the least bit of greed. Life is not defined by what you have, even when you have a lot.” (MSG)
Floor Plan
When is Enough, Enough?
We all experience temptation to be greedy, no matter how much or how little we earn, because greed is a matter of the heart and not of income.
Trouble Signs

Dropping the ball.

Strained relationships.

Financial commitments you can’t keep.

Living beyond your “emotional means.”
The Good Life
Ecclesiastes 2:10

“I denied myself nothing my eyes desired.” (NIV)
Ecclesiastes 2:10

“I denied myself nothing my eyes desired.” (NIV)

When we make life solely about ourselves, our greedy longings are never satisfied.
The Surplus Mindset

I have enough for myself and enough to share.
